CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 94:12-17

Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O LORD, and whom you teach out of your law, to give him rest from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.

For the LORD will not forsake his people; he will not abandon his heritage;

For justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Who rises up for me against the wicked?

Who stands up for me against evildoers?

If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence.

INVOCATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP

Holy, Holy, Holy!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

DO Gracious God and Heavenly Father, how we pervert our election in Christ through prideful thinking and arrogant living. While we ought to recognize that we are the dust of the earth, we live as though we are the center of all things. While we take for granted our reasonable health, we demand immunity from the afflictions of life. When we fall into some affliction we imagine it to be unfair. While we ought to be humbled by sovereign grace we presume upon it. When we serve, we demand recognition for our labors. When we sin against Your holiness, we rationalize our errors. When we see our neighbor elevated above us, we are envious. When we see our neighbor brought low, we secretly take pleasure. When we receive Your bounty and blessing, we are thankless. When we suffer loss, we complain against Your providence. We have no difficulty living as though we own what we have, and thus cling to earthly treasures. Worse yet, we refuse to live before You in Godly fear, worshipping and serving the creature rather than the Creator. Forgive us our prideful self-righteousness, our hypocrisy, and all deadly sins which spring from our selfish hearts. Give us, we pray, the grace to see our need for repentance, and draw us by Your Blessed Spirit to Christ. Look not upon us in our sin, but as clothed in the righteousness of the Son of Your love, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
