CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 16:5-11

*The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.
The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.
I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.
I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.
Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.
For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption.
You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy;
at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.*

INVOCATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

CONFESSION OF SIN

O Gracious God and Heavenly Father, how we pervert our election in Christ through prideful thinking and arrogant living. While we ought to recognize that we are the dust of the earth, we live as though we are the center of all things. While we take for granted our reasonable health, we demand immunity from the afflictions of life. When we fall into some affliction, we imagine it to be unfair. While we ought to be humbled by sovereign grace, we presume upon it. When we serve we seek recognition for our labors. When we sin against Your holiness, we rationalize our errors. When we see our neighbor elevated above us, we are envious. When we see our neighbor brought low, we secretly take pleasure. When we receive Your bounty and blessing, we are thankless. When we must go without, we complain against Your providence. We often live as though we own what we have, and thus cling to earthly treasures. Worse yet, we refuse to live before You in Godly fear, worshipping and serving the creature rather than the Creator. Forgive us our prideful self-righteousness, our hypocrisy, and all deadly sins which spring from our selfish hearts. Give us, we pray, the grace to see our need for repentance, and draw us by Your Blessed Spirit to Christ. Look not upon us in our sin, but as clothed in the righteousness of the Son of Your love, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
