CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 121:1-8

*I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come?
My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.
Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.*

INVOCATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP
A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

CONFESSION OF SIN

O Gracious God and Heavenly Father, how we pervert our election in Christ through prideful thinking and arrogant living. While we ought to recognize that we are the dust of the earth, we live as though we are the center of all things. While we take for granted our reasonable health, we demand immunity from the afflictions of life. When we fall into some affliction, we imagine it to be unfair. While we ought to be humbled by sovereign grace, we presume upon it. When we serve we seek recognition for our labors. When we sin against Your holiness, we rationalize our errors. When we see our neighbor elevated above us, we are envious. When we see our neighbor brought low, we secretly take pleasure. When we receive Your bounty and blessing, we are thankless. When we must go without, we complain against Your providence. We often live as though we own what we have, and thus cling to earthly treasures. Worse yet, we refuse to live before You in Godly fear, worshipping and serving the creature rather than the Creator. Forgive us our prideful self-righteousness, our hypocrisy, and all deadly sins which spring from our selfish hearts. Give us, we pray, the grace to see our need for repentance, and draw us by Your Blessed Spirit to Christ. Look not upon us in our sin, but as clothed in the righteousness of the Son of Your love, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
