CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 34:1-9

*I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad.
Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together!
I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.
This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him and saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!
Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!*

CONFESSION OF SIN

Our Father, You bid us come and drink deeply from the cup of blessing the sweet wine of the Gospel; but we draw from broken cisterns the water of our own self-righteousness. You set before us a board lavishly supplied with every good food, wisely and wonderfully prepared; spiritual food upon which we can be continually nourished and eternally satisfied; yet we content ourselves with stolen bread eaten in secret. Such is our sinful nature - we seek satisfaction from creation, while forsaking our Creator, who alone can satisfy our deepest longings and fill our souls to overflowing. Forgive our attempts to find pleasure apart from Your Good Pleasure. Forgive us for exchanging liberty for license, and for neglecting the truth that sets us free. Forgive us for exalting ourselves and using Your blessed Son as though He were some charming commodity sent to serve our selfish ends. Create in us such disdain for sin that would drive us to despair of all hope save that which can be found in Christ alone. May we feed upon Him by faith through Word and Sacrament. May the presence of His Spirit comfort us. Give us peace of heart and mind as we rest in the righteousness of our Savior and King, Jesus Christ. Amen.
