PRELUDE

Choral Prelude on "Lasst uns Erfreuen"

ARR. SLATER

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 145:1-6

I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.

Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever.

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.

On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.

They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O LORD, we are shells of dust, but animated with invisible rational souls and made anew by an unseen Power of grace; yet we are no rare object of valuable price, but such that have nothing and are nothing, although chosen by You from eternity, given to Christ, and born again; we are deeply convinced of the evil and misery of our sinful state, of the vanity of creatures, but also of the sufficiency of Christ.

Father in heaven, when You would guide me I control myself, when You would be sovereign I rule myself. When You would take care of me I suffice myself, when I should depend on Your providings I supply myself; when I should submit to Your providence I follow my will, when I should study, love, honor, trust You, I serve myself; I fault and correct Your laws to suit myself, instead of You I look to man's approbation, and am by nature an idolater.

Lord, it is my chief design to bring my heart back to You. Convince me that I cannot be my own god, or make myself happy, nor my own Christ to restore my joy, nor my own Spirit to teach, guide, rule me. Help me to see that grace does this by providential affliction. Take away my roving eye, curious ear, greedy appetite, lustful heart; show me that none of these things can heal a wounded conscience, or support a tottering frame, or uphold a departing spirit. Then take me to the cross and leave me there. Amen.

Q.176: Wherein do the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper agree?

A. The sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper agree, in that the author of both is God; the spiritual part of both is Christ and his benefits; both are seals of the same covenant, are to be dispensed by ministers of the gospel, and by none other; and to be continued in the church of Christ until his second coming.
