CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 108:1-5

My heart is steadfast, O God! I will sing and make melody with all my being!

Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

For your steadfast love is great above the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Spirit of the Living God, enter in and throw open all the doors. We can hide nothing from Your heavenly gaze, nor would we hold back any secret sin as though it were some personal treasure. Only the grace of repentance can relieve our guilty conscience. Give us a proper view of our hearts, and let the sight of them move us to seek mercy. Forgive us for worshipping idols: the desire for self-glory, self-rule, self-righteousness, the pursuit of selfish and ungodly pleasures, the selfish abuse of Your gifts and grace. Forgive us for thinking little of our sin. Forgive us for thinking much of the sins of others. Forgive us our hardness of heart – for justifying ourselves while judging others. Forgive us for resisting the reconciling grace of the Holy Spirit – when we are wronged we cherish anger, when we are accused we play the victim. Soften our hearts and move us to love You, Your church, our neighbors and to be charitable toward our adversaries. Give us only that providence which would move us toward holiness. For the glory and honor of Christ forgive and restore us. Amen.

Q.179: What is it to pray in the name of Christ?

A. To pray in the name of Christ is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake; not by bare mentioning of his name, but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldness, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer, from Christ and his mediation.
