PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 27:1-6

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.

And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Dear Lord Jesus Christ, Lamb of God slain for sinners, we thank You for making such great provision for us. You drank to the bitter end the cup of the wrath of God for us, and hold before us the cup of blessing. Yet we die of thirst while drowning in worldly swill. You are the Bread of Life, having given Your body to death on the cross for us, yet we starve even as we stuff ourselves with worldly delights. Forgive our misplaced affections. By Word and Sacrament this day, renew our minds and hearts. Nourish our souls from heavenly gleanings. Forgive us and fill us with that which slakes our deepest thirstings and satisfies our most powerful pangs. Let us feed upon You alone and find our greatest satisfaction always in You, for Your love's sake. Amen

Q.179: Are we to pray unto God only?

A. God only being able to search the hearts, hear the requests, pardon the sins, and fulfill the desires of all; and only to be believed in, and worshiped with religious worship; prayer, which is a special part thereof, is to be made by all to him alone, and to none other.
