PRELUDE

How Wondrous and Great

ARR. JOHNSON

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 108:1-5

My heart is steadfast, O God! I will sing and make melody with all my being!

Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

For your steadfast love is great above the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Heavenly Father, we have violated Your Holy Commandments:

We have misplaced our affection, for we do not love you first and foremost. We have not borne Your image well and have remade You after our own. We have not spoken well of You and have failed to live up to the fair name by which we have been called. We have not made good and wise use of the day of rest. We have not honored those whom you have graciously placed in authority over us. We are guilty of murder, if not actual then in the secret place of our hearts. We are guilty of adultery, if not actual then in the secret place of our hearts. We have stolen from You and from one another. We have lied to You, to ourselves and to one another. We have not been content with Your generous providence, and have sinfully desired what You have given to others.

We have broken every commandment and are guilty and ashamed. By the gracious prompting of Your Holy Spirit we repent and pray for Gospel blessings to pardon our sin, relieve our guilty conscience and clothe us anew in the Righteousness of our Faithful Savior and Friend, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Q.183: For whom are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for the whole church of Christ upon earth; for magistrates, and ministers; for ourselves, our brethren, yea, our enemies; and for all sorts of men living, or that shall live hereafter; but not for the dead, nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death.
