CALL TO WORSHIP
Isaiah 46:3-4; Psalm 139:14-16

“Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from before your birth, carried from the womb; Even to your old age I am he, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.

For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Searcher of Hearts, who knows not only our outward manner of life, but also views our thoughts and intents, we stand before You in transparency. There is nothing we can hide from Your heavenly gaze, no place where we can sin in secret. You know our attitudes and affections - our foolishness as well. You see through the façade of our self-righteousness. We cannot impress you with our spiritual disciplines, for our idols betray us.

Therefore our God we acknowledge and confess our sins wherein we have violated Your holy Law. Forgive our neglect of the gifts of Your Spirit. We have not earnestly pursued nor desired Your worship, the study of Your Word, the communion of the saints, prayer and the sacraments. Forgive our religious hypocrisy and self-righteousness. Forgive our lack of love and compassion toward those who are least able to care for themselves. Forgive our cold, hard and stingy hearts, and for selfishly seeking our own pleasure. Holy Father, forgive us for taking You for granted, for lovelessness and apathy and indifference. Grant us humility and hunger for the righteousness of Christ, who alone can cleanse our hearts and fill them with abounding grace. Amen.
