PRELUDE

Chorale Prelude: "Blessed Jesus, at Your Word"

J. S. BACH

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 119:138-144

Righteous are you, O LORD, and right are your rules.

You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness.

My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget your words.

Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it.

I am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.

Your righteousness is righteous forever, and your law is true.

Trouble and anguish have found me out, but your commandments are my delight.

Your testimonies are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Our Holy Father, we confess that we are quicker to sin than to repent.

How swiftly do we turn from You to satisfy some sudden urge for forbidden fruit. Knowing the abundant grace that flows from the treasures of Your goodness and love, we are emboldened to sin in the presumption that we will in the end be forgiven. Forgive this foolishness. Please give to us the divine grace of true repentance, and such an understanding of our hearts that would drive us to lay hold of Your forgiveness more desperately. Wean our hearts from sin and give us the greater pleasure of knowing Jesus. Lift us to the heavenly throne of grace and fix our eyes upon Him. Let our impoverished souls be satisfied by that which Christ alone can supply. Feed us with the True Bread from Heaven. Slake our thirst with the waters of life. Wash us thoroughly in the blood of the cross of Christ. Give us a conscience free from guilt, shame and fear. Help us to live and love in blessed union with our Sovereign Savior, who has made satisfaction for our sins through His life, death and resurrection. For His name's sake we pray. Amen.

THE LARGER CATECHISM OF THE WESTMINSTER CONFSSION OF FAITH

Q.195: What do we pray for in the sixth petition?

A. In the sixth petition, (which is, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,) acknowledging, that the most wise, righteous, and gracious God, for divers holy and just ends, may so order things, that we may be assaulted, foiled, and for a time led captive by temptations; that Satan, the world, and the flesh, are ready powerfully to draw us aside, and ensnare us; and that we, even after the pardon of our sins, by reason of our corruption, weakness, and want of watchfulness, are not only subject to be tempted, and forward to expose ourselves unto temptations, but also of ourselves unable and unwilling to resist them, to recover out of them, and to improve them; and worthy to be left under the power of them: we pray, that God would so overrule the world and all in it, subdue the flesh, and restrain Satan, order all things, bestow and bless all means of grace, and quicken us to watchfulness in the use of them, that we and all his people may by his providence be kept from being tempted to sin; or, if tempted, that by his Spirit we may be powerfully supported and enabled to stand in the hour of temptation; or when fallen, raised again and recovered out of it, and have a sanctified use and improvement thereof: that our sanctification and salvation may be perfected, Satan trodden under our feet, and we fully freed from sin, temptation, and all evil, forever.
