PRELUDE

O O Help Us, Lord, to Praise Thee
J. S. BACH

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 1

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;

For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Heavenly Father, forgive us for we do not know how to worship You. Though You have taught us in Your word how You are to be approached, we have imagined better ways for ourselves. Forgive us for thinking ourselves worthy of Your grace. Though we ought to prepare for worship, we often thoughtlessly stumble into Your presence. While we desire to bask in Your love, we imagine ourselves to be loveable. Whereas You have provided for us the righteousness of Christ, we present self-righteousness. Though we have taken pains to make ourselves outwardly attractive to one another, we have taken little thought of the deformity of our hearts. We have looked down upon sinners and thought of ourselves as better. Forgive us, we pray, for being so selfish. Forgive us for carelessness and thoughtlessness and lovelessness. Fan the flames of Gospel affections within us, that we might be better able to bear witness to Your Fatherly love, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the sweet fellowship of the Holy Spirit. This we ask through Him who loved us, and gave Himself for us. Amen.
