CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 115:1-11

Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

*Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Our God is in the heavens;
he does all that he pleases.*

Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human hands. They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see. They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell.

*They have hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk;
and they do not make a sound in their throat.*

Those who make them become like them; so do all who trust in them.

O Israel, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield. O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.

You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD! He is their help and their shield.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP

Holy, Holy, Holy!

MORNING WORSHIP, LORD'S DAY, AUGUST 14, 2016

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

*Spirit of the Living God, enter in and throw open all the doors. We can hide nothing from Your heavenly gaze, nor would we hold back any secret sin as though it were some personal treasure. Only the grace of repentance can relieve our guilty conscience. Give us a proper view of our hearts, and let the sight of them move us to seek grace. Forgive us for worshiping idols: the desire for self-glory, self-rule, self-righteousness, the pursuit of selfish and ungodly pleasures, the selfish abuse of Your gifts and grace. Forgive us for thinking little of our sin. Forgive us for thinking much of the sins of others. Forgive us our hardness of heart – for justifying ourselves and judging others. Forgive us for resisting the reconciling grace of the Holy Spirit – when we are wronged we cherish anger, when we are accused we play the victim. Soften our hearts and move us to love You, Your church, our neighbors and to be charitable toward our adversaries. Give us only that providence which would move us toward holiness. For the glory and honor of Christ forgive and restore us.
Amen.*
