ARR. SMITH/FLEISCHER

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 27:1-6

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall. Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.

For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.

And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP
The God of Abraham Praise

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Pastor: O FORGETFUL SOUL, Awake from thy wandering dream; turn from chasing vanities, look inward, forward, upward, view thyself, reflect upon thyself, who and what thou art, why here, what thou must soon be. Thou art a creature of God, formed and furnished by Him, lodged in a body like a shepherd in his tent; dost thou not desire to know God's ways?

All: O GOD, Thou injured, neglected, provoked benefactor, when I think upon Thy greatness and Thy goodness I am ashamed at my insensibility, I blush to lift up my face, for I have foolishly erred.

Shall I go on neglecting Thee, when every one of Thy rational creatures should love Thee, and take every care to please Thee? I confess that Thou hast not been in all my thoughts, that the knowledge of Thyself as the end of my being has been strangely overlooked, that I have never seriously considered my heart-need. But although my mind is perplexed and divided, my nature perverse, yet my secret dispositions still desire Thee.

Let me not delay to come to Thee; break the fatal enchantment that binds my evil affections, and bring me to a happy mind that rests in Thee, for Thou hast made me and canst not forget me. Let Thy Spirit teach me the vital lessons of Christ, for I am slow to learn; and hear Thou my broken cries. Amen
