CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 33:1-8

Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright.

Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings!

Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.

For the word of the LORD is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses.

Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

MORNING WORSHIP, LORD'S DAY, JANUARY 22, 2017

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign Lord, You are the High and Holy Creator of the universe.

All things have come from You. You Spoke the Word, and from the power and authority of Your most holy will came forth a vast, wonderful, beautiful and glorious demonstration of Your creative genius. You created man in Your image, placed him over every creature, and gave him a holy vocation. We belong to You, and have a duty to do according to Your pleasure. We have failed in every way and beg Your forgiveness. We imagine ourselves to be the center of all things. We have arrogantly spoken and acted in defiance of Your authority. We live as though we have the ability to bend Your will, place You at our disposal and oblige You to ourselves. Forgive us for selfwilled thinking and the actions that follow. Forgive all our sins of omission and commission. By the blood of that perfect Man shed for sinners, the Suffering Servant, who came not to do His own will but that of His Father, the Word of God incarnate, the One in whom we live and breathe and have our being, deliver us from our selfish sin and its guilt. Grant us to live in the light of what we are – unprofitable servants of the Most High God – for Jesus' sake we pray. Amen.
