CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 33:1-3

Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!

It is like the precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down on the collar of his robes!

It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion!

For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life forevermore.

INVOCATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP
We Come, O Christ, to You

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Gracious God, You are the giver of every good and perfect gift. I have received from Your hand all things necessary for life and faith. But have I received these blessings with a proper view to Your goodness? Have I had Your glory in mind when eating and drinking? Or in conversation with family and friends? Or while enjoying the creation? Or at work or play? Has it been my goal in life to celebrate my achievements or to give You the honor for whatever I have accomplished? Have I honored You with my stewardship of time, talent and treasure? Have I thought of You as a vendor of blessings or the One True Blessing? Have I revealed Your glory through my sufferings and trials? Have I been willing to die to myself in order to live for You?

You alone know the answer to these questions, for the chambers of my heart are not hidden from Your sight. Forgive me for the many ways I have robbed You of Your glory. Forgive me for indulging myself at Your expense. Forgive me for cherishing idols – peace, prestige, position, power, property, pleasure – for the time and energy spent in maintaining them. Forgive me for thinking little of my union with Christ, and for my neglect of Your Scriptures, Your Son, Your Grace, Your Spirit and the Gift of Faith. For the sake of Christ I pray. Amen
