CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 111

Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.

Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and merciful.

He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy; they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever.

Holy and awesome is his name!

*The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.*

His praise endures forever!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP

Holy, Holy, Holy!

CONFESSION OF SIN

Our Father, You bid us come and drink deeply from the Gospel wine of the cup of blessing, but we draw from broken cisterns the water of our own self-righteousness. You set before us a board lavishly supplied with every good food, wisely and wonderfully prepared, spiritual food upon which we can be continually nourished and eternally satisfied, yet we content ourselves with stolen bread eaten in secret. Such is our sinful nature - we seek satisfaction from creation, while forsaking our Creator, who alone can satisfy our deepest longings and fill our souls to overflowing. Forgive our attempts to find pleasure apart from Your Good Pleasure. Forgive us for exchanging liberty for license, and for neglecting the truth that sets us free. Forgive us for exalting ourselves and using Your blessed Son as though He were some charming commodity sent to serve our selfish ends. Create in us such disdain for sin that would drive us to despair of all hope save that which can be found in Christ alone. May we feed upon Him by faith through Word and Sacrament. May the presence of His Spirit comfort us. Give us peace of heart and mind as we rest in the righteousness of our Savior and King, Jesus Christ. Amen.
