CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 96:1-6

Oh sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth!
Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.
Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!
For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.
For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

INVOCATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN OF WORSHIP
O Father, You Are Sovereign

CONFESSION OF SIN

Pastor: O LORD, we are shells of dust, but animated with invisible rational souls and made anew by an unseen Power of grace; yet we are no rare object of valuable price, but such that have nothing and are nothing, although chosen by You from eternity, given to Christ, and born again; we are deeply convinced of the evil and misery of our sinful state, of the vanity of creatures, but also of the sufficiency of Christ.

All: Father in heaven, when You would guide me I control myself, when You would be sovereign I rule myself. When You would take care of me I suffice myself; when I should depend on Your providings I supply myself; when I should submit to Your providence I follow my will; when I should study, love, honor, trust You, I serve myself; I fault and correct Your laws to suit myself, instead of You I look to man's approbation, and am by nature an idolater.

Lord, it is my chief design to bring my heart back to You. Convince me that I cannot be my own god, or make myself happy, nor my own Christ to restore my joy, nor my own Spirit to teach, guide, rule me. Help me to see that grace does this by providential affliction. Take away my roving eye, curious ear, greedy appetite, lustful heart; show me that none of these things can heal a wounded conscience, or support a tottering frame, or uphold a departing spirit. Then take me to the cross and leave me there. Amen.
