CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 68:1-5

*God shall arise, his enemies shall be scattered;
and those who hate him shall flee before him!*

*As smoke is driven away, so you shall drive them away;
as wax melts before fire, so the wicked shall perish before God!*

But the righteous shall be glad; they shall exult before God; they shall be jubilant with joy!

*Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts;
his name is the LORD; exult before him!*

Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Our Father, You bid us come and drink deeply from the cup of blessing the sweet wine of the Gospel, but we draw from broken cisterns the water of our own self-righteousness. You set before us a board lavishly supplied with every good food, wisely and wonderfully prepared, spiritual food upon which we can be continually nourished and eternally satisfied; yet we content ourselves with stolen bread eaten in secret. Such is our sinful nature - we seek satisfaction from creation, while forsaking our Creator, who alone can satisfy our deepest longings and fill our souls to overflowing. Forgive our attempts to find pleasure apart from Your Good Pleasure. Forgive us for exchanging liberty for license, and for neglecting the truth that sets us free. Forgive us for exalting ourselves and using Your blessed Son as though He were some charming commodity sent to serve our selfish ends. Create in us such disdain for sin that would drive us to despair of all hope save that which can be found in Christ alone. May we feed upon Him by faith through Word and Sacrament. May the presence of His Spirit comfort us. Give us peace of heart and mind as we rest in the righteousness of our Savior and King, Jesus Christ. Amen.
