CALL TO WORSHIP

PSALM 45:1-7

My heart overflows with a pleasing theme; I address my verses to the king; my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.

*You are the most handsome of the sons of men; grace is poured upon your lips;
therefore God has blessed you forever.*

*Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one, in your splendor and majesty!
In your majesty ride out victoriously for the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness; let your right hand teach you awesome deeds!*

Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; the peoples fall under you.

Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness; you have loved righteousness and hated wickedness.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions;

CONFESSION OF SIN

Holy Father, as we look back on another year of life, we are reminded again of the precious gift You have given us. You have created us – fearfully and wonderfully have we been made – and You have redeemed us from sin and death that we might bear testimony to Your grace and truth. We are so grateful for the progress we have made by grace toward grace. You have been such a great Savior and Provider. Yet we lament our weakness and sin. Forgive us our pride and our self-righteousness, which are revealed when we think ourselves to be no great sinners. Forgive us for withholding love, which we ought to have showered upon others. Forgive us for not loving You with a sincere heart always.

Grant us, O Lord, a desire for that which pleases You. Teach us to love Your will, that in Your providence throughout this year we might have grace to worship You in whatever circumstances You are pleased to bring upon us. May we find our greatest pleasure in resting in Your Good Pleasure, which You have secured for us through Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in Whose name we pray. Amen.
